

This ruling would violate our rights as Americans to due process. I am very uncomfortable with the idea that the TSA (or any government entity) can wield this kind of power over an American citizen without due process.